

DEPARTMENT OF THE NAVY
OFFICE OF THE CHIEF OF NAVAL OPERATIONS
2000 NAVY PENTAGON
WASHINGTON, D.C. 20350-2000

IN REPLY REFER TO

SECNAVINST 3870.6A
N20
4 December 1995

SECNAV INSTRUCTION 3870.6A

From: Secretary of the Navy

Subj: GENERAL INTELLIGENCE TRAINING WITHIN THE DEPARTMENT OF THE NAVY (DON)

Ref: (a) DOD Directive 3305.2 of 20 Jul 84 (NOTAL)
(b) DIA Regulation 24-11
(c) DOD Directive 5100.1 of 25 Sep 87 (NOTAL)

1. Purpose. To provide policy, procedures and responsibilities for implementing reference (a) within the DON. This instruction is a complete revision and should be read in its entirety.

2. Cancellation. SECNAVINST 3870.6

3. Background

a. Reference (a) establishes policy, prescribes standards and procedures and assigns responsibilities for the conduct of general intelligence training among Department of Defense (DOD) components. It establishes also the General Intelligence Training Council (GITC) to provide a forum in which policy matters, training issues and other related topics may be addressed. Reference (a) also tasks the Director, Defense Intelligence Agency (DIA), as intelligence advisor to the Secretary of Defense and the Joint Chiefs of Staff, to establish policies and procedures to ensure adequate general intelligence training is provided. Reference (b) is DIA implementing regulation for reference (a).

b. General Intelligence Training consists of intelligence training and intelligence related training which provides personnel the knowledge, skills and abilities unique to or in direct support of the general intelligence (non-cryptologic) mission to provide intelligence support to the National Command Authority (NCA) and the joint warfighting commanders. DOD policy is to ensure the adequacy and responsiveness of intelligence training, and to ensure training requirements are included in planning, programming and budgeting actions.

4. Responsibilities

a. Acting for the Chief of Naval Operations the Director of Naval Intelligence (N2) will:

4 DEC 1995

(1) Incorporate guidance from the Assistant Secretary of Defense (Command, Control, Communications and Intelligence) (ASD(C3I)) and the Director, DIA, in the development of planning, programming and budgeting actions concerning Navy-related and/or Navy-unique general intelligence training.

(2) Assemble and maintain an up-to-date record of all Navy general intelligence training requirements and programs.

(3) Establish, maintain and operate Navy general intelligence training schools following reference (b).

(4) Provide Navy-unique and/or Navy-general intelligence training, including instructional material and proficiency training for Navy active and reserve component students.

(5) Provide facilities, when appropriate, for the use of DOD components for training when conducted on a collocated basis.

(6) Coordinate with and obtain approval from the Director, DIA on proposed major changes to all executive agent training requirements and courses; and obtain approval from the Director, DIA and ASD(C3I) on all executive agent training responsibilities as required.

(7) Coordinate with the other Services and, when requested, obtain approval from the Director, DIA on proposed changes to all joint general intelligence training responsibilities, requirements and courses.

(8) Coordinate actions with the Director, DIA and maintain liaison with other DOD components and appropriate government agencies on matters that affect the conduct and development of assigned general intelligence training programs.

(9) Provide for the periodic review and analysis of Navy Service-unique general intelligence training curricula to determine the potential for inter-Service consolidation.

b. The Commandant of the Marine Corps will:

(1) Incorporate guidance from the ASD(C3I) and the Director, DIA, in the development of planning, programming and budgeting actions related to general intelligence training and/or Marine Corps unique general intelligence training.

(2) Assemble and maintain an up-to-date record of all Marine Corps general intelligence training requirements and programs.

(3) Provide Marine Corps unique and/or Marine Corps general intelligence training, including instructional material and proficiency training for the Marine Corps active and reserve component students.

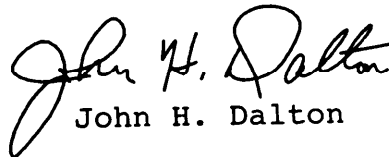

(4) Provide facilities, when appropriate, for the use of DOD components for training to be conducted on a collocated basis.

(5) Coordinate with and obtain approval from the Director, DIA, on proposed major changes to all executive agent training requirements and courses; and obtain approval from the Director, DIA, and ASD(C3I) on all executive agent training responsibilities as required.

(6) Coordinate with the other Services and, when requested, obtain approval from the Director, DIA on proposed changes to all joint general intelligence training responsibilities, requirements and courses.

(7) Coordinate actions with the Director, DIA and maintain liaison with other DOD components and appropriate government agencies on matters that affect the conduct and development of assigned general intelligence training programs.

(8) Provide for the periodic review and analysis of Marine Corps unique general intelligence training curricula to determine the potential for inter-service consolidation or collocation.

John H. Dalton

SECNAVINST 3870.6A

4 DEC 1995

Distribution:

SNDL	A3	(Chief of Naval Operations)
	A4A	(Chief of Naval Material)
	A6	(Commandant of the Marine Corps) (15 copies)
	FF62	(Chief of Naval Reserve)
	FT1	(Chief of Naval Education and Training)

Copy to:

SNDL	B2A	(Special Agencies, Staffs, Boards and Committees)
		(DIA, only)
	21A	(Fleet Commanders in Chief)
	FS1	(Intelligence Command Headquarters)

SECNAV/OPNAV Directives Control Office
Washington Navy Yard Bldg 200
901 M Street SE
Washington, DC 20374-5074 (15 copies)

Order from:

Naval Inventory Control Point
Cog "I" Material
700 Robbins Avenue
Philadelphia, PA 19111-5098

Stocked: 20 copies